Scottish Charity SCO 16311

Dear Friends,

This will be our final Link until after the summer as we are going to take some time to think about how we want to use the Link. It costs a considerable amount of money to print each time and so that we are not wasting money, we want to rethink its purpose and therefore the content.

MESSAGE FROM THE MANSE

The

Roberta has been editing the Link for two years now but has decided to step down and so this is the perfect opportunity to rethink how we use it. We are very grateful to Roberta for the work she has done and want to record our thanks.

I am involved with an online craft group and on reading the blog that is produced by the owner of the company, I came across a stamp which read: In the winds of change, we find a new direction.

The Church of Scotland is facing the winds of change. Congregations are facing the winds of change. The General Assembly will be presented with a Radical Plan for the Church which leave many feeling threatened but in building the Kingdom of God as opposed to our own little empires, the winds of change may guide us in a new direction and in terms of our faith that may well be a real positive step forward.

Jesus called us to follow Him. He said foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head. He did not call us to build empires. He did not even call us to put down roots except in His Son. He called us to move rather to stand still because that is the only way we can follow Him.

In the story of blind Bartimaeus, we see him calling out to Jesus as Jesus was about to pass by. He called out to Him and he then followed Him. Is Jesus passing us by or are we calling out to Him so that we might follow Him and walk with Him into His future.

It is God's Kingdom we are called to build, not our empires. Let's look for ways to shake off the shackles of the past that we might be free in the present and ready to face the future.

Beginning on the 10th March at 6.30 we are starting a study on the King's Speech called Finding A Voice. Come and join us for that. It will run for five weeks and may reignite our faith and encourage us to live it rather than preserving it for posterity.

Best wishes,

Hilda C. Smith

To You Who Bring Small Children to Church

8 There you are sitting in worship or Bible study. Your child, or toddler, is restless. Perhaps they're even a little boisterous. You try to silence them, and nothing. You try to pacify them with food or toys, and nothing. Eventuâ, ally, you resort to the last thing you wanted to do: you pick them up, and before a watching audience, you make the march out of the auditorium.

🂐 All the while, you're a little embarrassed. Maybe you're a little frustrated too. You might even think to yourself, 🂐 "There's no point in coming to church. I get nothing out of it because I have to constantly care for my kid."

🕺 I want you — you mothers and/or fathers — to know just how encouraging you are to so many. The little elderly Norman who often sits alone beams with a smile at the sight of you wrestling with your little one. She's been 🛰 there before. She knows how hard it can be, but she smiles because to hear that brings back precious memo-💐 ries.

To see young parents and their small children brighten her day, and she may have just received bad news this week about her health but seeing the vitality of young ones removes — if but for a moment — her fears.

â, 8 The older man who always seems to be grouchy notices you too. He's always talking about how children in this Real and the second sec day have no respect or sense of good. But, he sees you - a young family - in church, and you don't miss any gathering. Like clockwork, he can depend on the sight of you and your young family. You give him hope that R. maybe the church isn't doomed after all, because there are still young parents who love God enough to bring their restless children to worship.

Bring your children to church. If you don't hear crying, the church is dying. As hard as it might be for you as a parent who's half-asleep, keep on doing what you're doing.

💐 You are an encouragement, and you're starting off your children's lives as you should. 💐 (Author Unknown)

QUIZ SHEETS - still available £1 per sheet, runs until 31st March.

STEWARDSHIP CAMPAIGN 2019-2020

The Campaign will start with TIME being the focus for 2019-2020 and this will initially be incorporated into a Sunday service, to explore the many different ways this can be used. This will possibly not be until April as the 2019 Annual Stated Meeting and Easter will come first. It is also intended to have informal meetings from time to time over the year to discuss how we're doing, but we will keep you posted when the tea and cake meetings will take place.

We know we are very lucky to have so many willing volunteers for the cafe, coffee mornings, cleaningetc already, but there are many ways that TIME can be interpreted and we want to share and discuss this with you.

It is also our intention to send out a Survey to the congregation in the next few months and from your replies, we are hoping to get the opinions of our members as well as the community. The object of this exercise is to find out what is expected of Lochgilphead Parish Church now and in the future, from yourselves and the community at large and we need your help to achieve this.

The Survey would be strictly anonymous so that we get frank and full answers from everyone, so you won't need to hold back on your opinions!! We need to know exactly what is required of us as a church.

Meanwhile, if you have any suggestions that you would like to share now, please don't hesitate to let us know.

KNITTING FOR KASAMBA CHURCH IN LILONGWE

In this time of uncertainty on so many fronts both nationally and internationally, there is one thing which never fails and that is that no sooner has a case been filled with baby knitting for Kasamba Church in Lilongwe, than more bags full of knitting are handed in.

From Argyll the cases are taken to Dundee by Ruth Carruthers to whom we are very grateful. In Dundee the Bananabox Charity loads the cases into huge containers for transportation by sea and by land to the headquarters of the Synod of Livingstonia in Mzuzu. From there the cases are taken to Lilongwe and distributed to new born babies through the staff in the maternity unit of the local hospital. It takes some time for containers to be filled by baby clothes and then be sent on to our Partner Church in Malawi.

Hopefully our recent consignment will be dispatched early in March. Many thanks to all who contribute to this blessed cause through their kindness, concern and hard work!

EASYFUNDRAISING

A reminder to everyone of the benefits to Lochgilphead Parish Church of doing your online shopping through Easyfundraising. It won't cost you anything extra to do this, just visit their website www.easyfundraising.org.uk to register and specify LPC as your charity, then look for the retailer you wish to buy from, click on to place your order and easyfundraising will do the rest for you. It's as easy as that and everytime you do this, they will donate a percentage of your spend to the church.

The more people using it, the more our donations will grow.

They have a huge range of well known companies for you to choose from, including M&S, Boots, Amazon, Boden, Booking.com, Ebay, Dorothy Perkins, Accor Hotels, Insurance companies and Travel companies, to name but a few. So if you're going to buy online anyway, have a look at this website first.

You've got nothing to lose and LPC have everything to gain. Try it!

LOCHGILPHEAD PARISH CHURCH

OPEN GARDENS

Last year Margaret Davidson and Jenny Campbell opened their gardens for an afternoon over the summer period to raise funds for the work that is scheduled to be done in the Church over the next few months,

Both were very successful afternoons raising £667.00.

We are looking for two or three more people who are willing to open their gardens this summer. Pick a date when your garden is looking it's best and provide some tea/coffee for those who come along. Entry is by donation.

If you are willing to take part, please let Margaret know and she will arrange to publicise the event.

The rest is up to you.

The Bingo Night scheduled for March 10th has been postponed until later in the year.
